Part 2.

A Few Minutes Later
In The Helicopter

I'm just surprised that the P.M. needs outside help!

The military has been very remiss allowing the P.M. to go alone. It's not that safe over in Yorkshire. The place is full of mutants!

Oh great. This sounds worse than before.

Don't worry Bozzy, the mutants pulled back. It's all quiet at present.

The Helicopter starts its journey to Yorkshire.

Lets hope it stays that way.

Right Blackburn
first, then we escort
the Prime-Ministers helicopter through to Huddersfield.

The Hideous Mutant "Han" Started a Massive Counterstrike to take the town of Huddersfield.

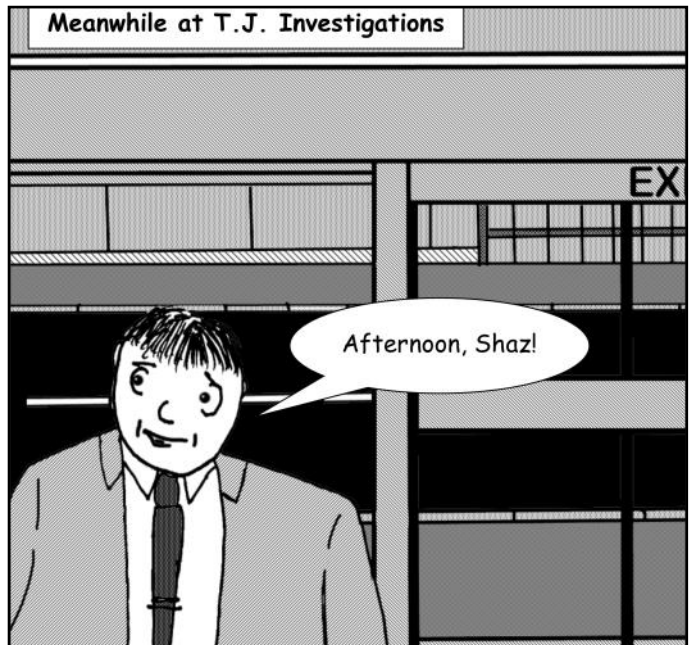

Open fire, blast the town to ash, if needs be.

From the Nearby Desert a Massive Onslaught Begins.

The Town is Pummeled by Shell after Shell. The sounds of explosions are everywhere. As well as the smell of gunpowder and charred bodies.

Meanwhile at T.J. Investigations

Afternoon, Shaz!

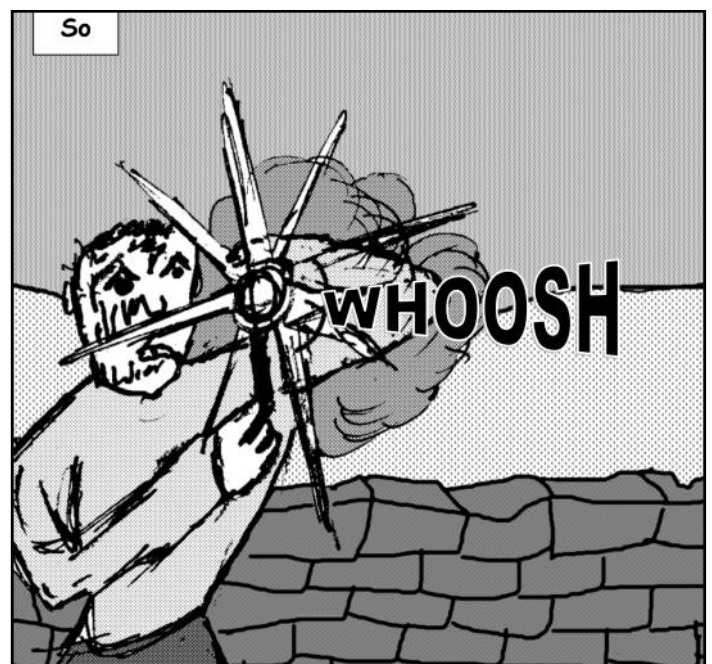

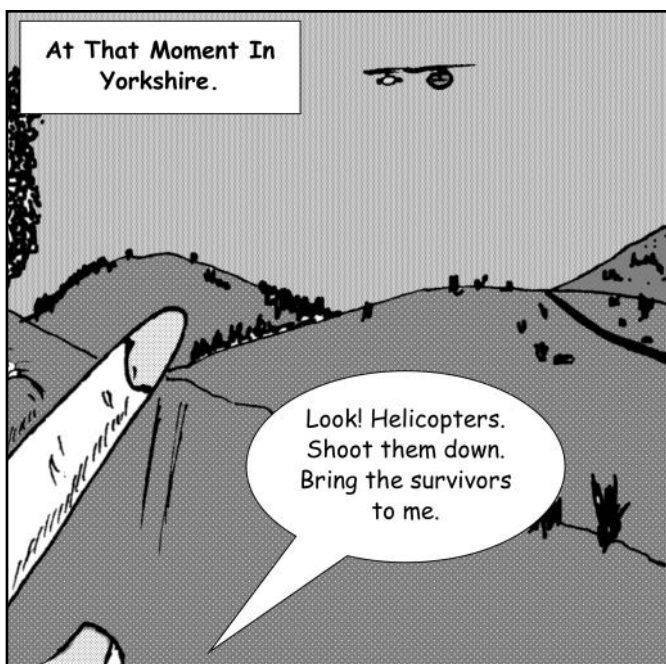

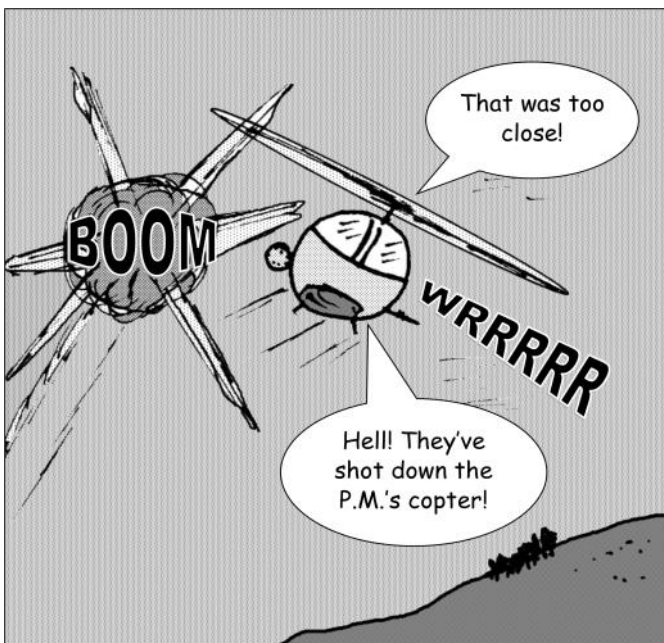

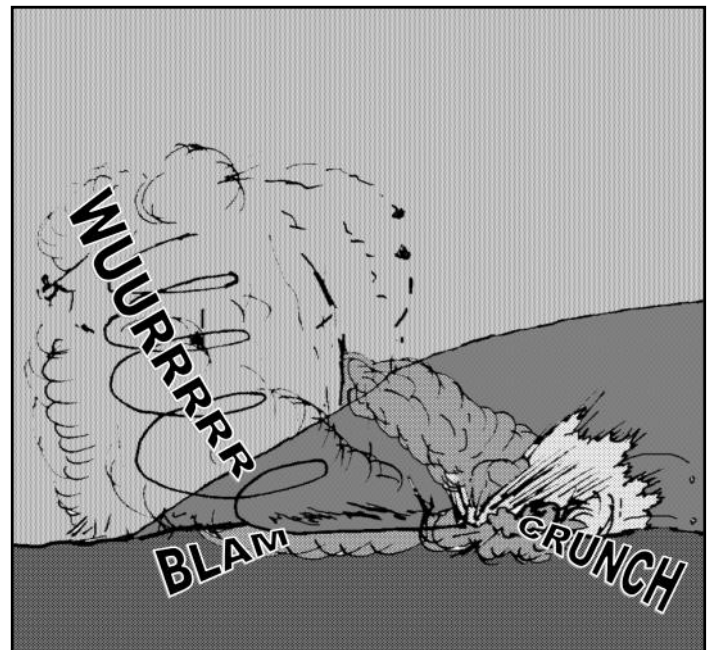

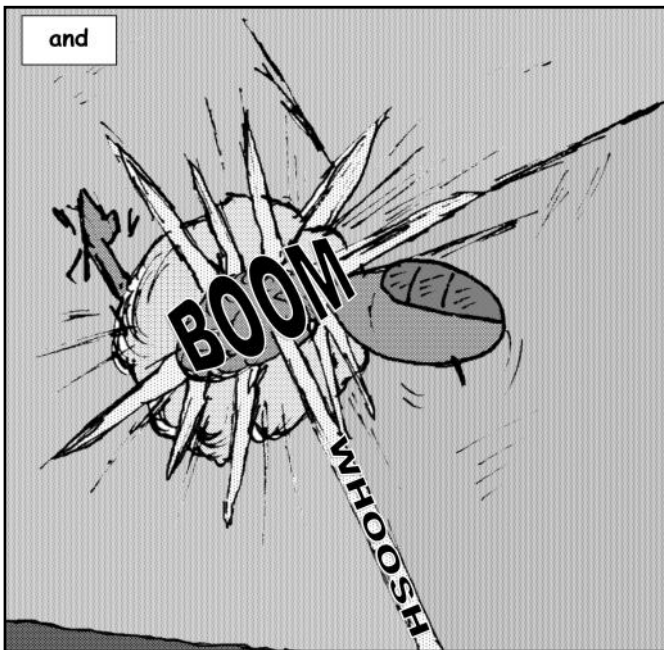

Good afternoon, Smithy. It's alright for some. Getting the morning off.

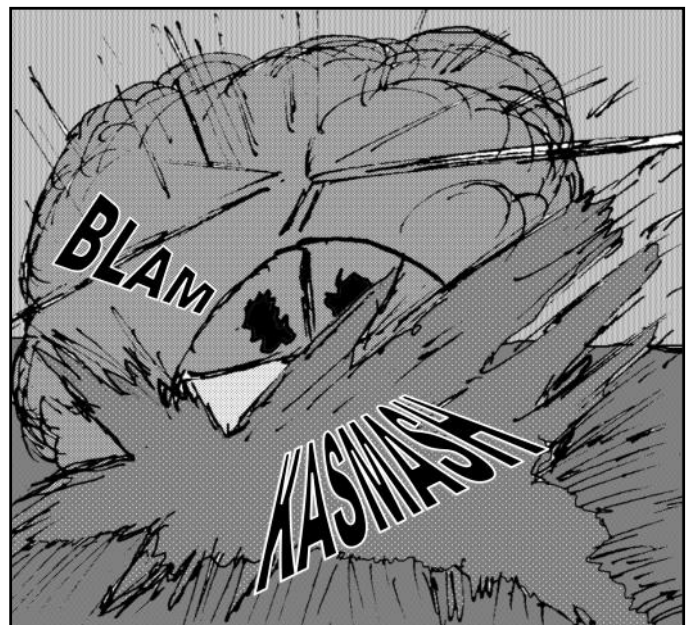

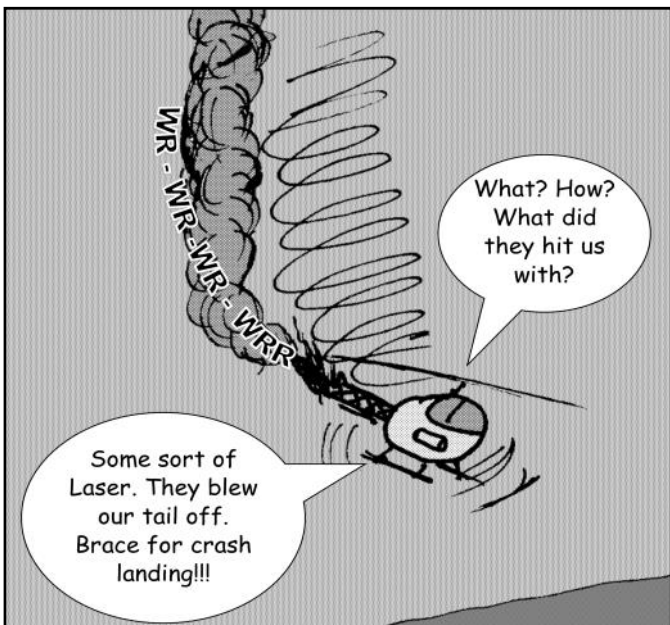

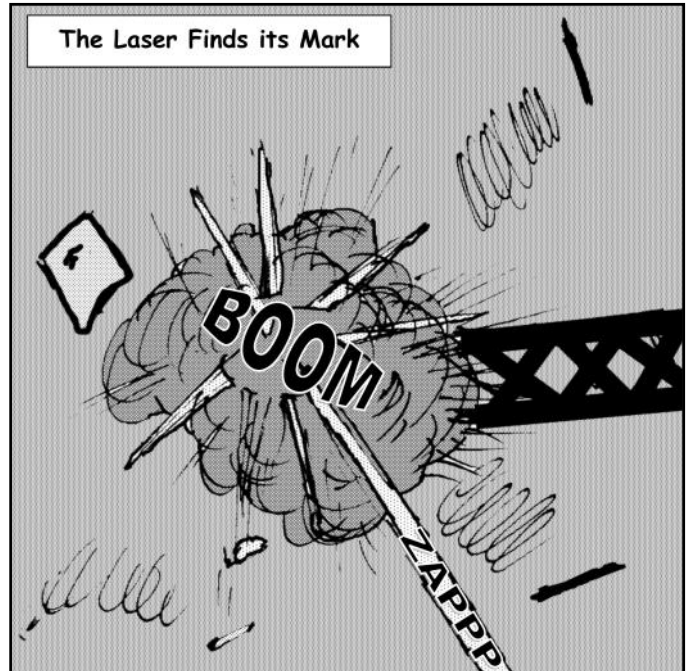

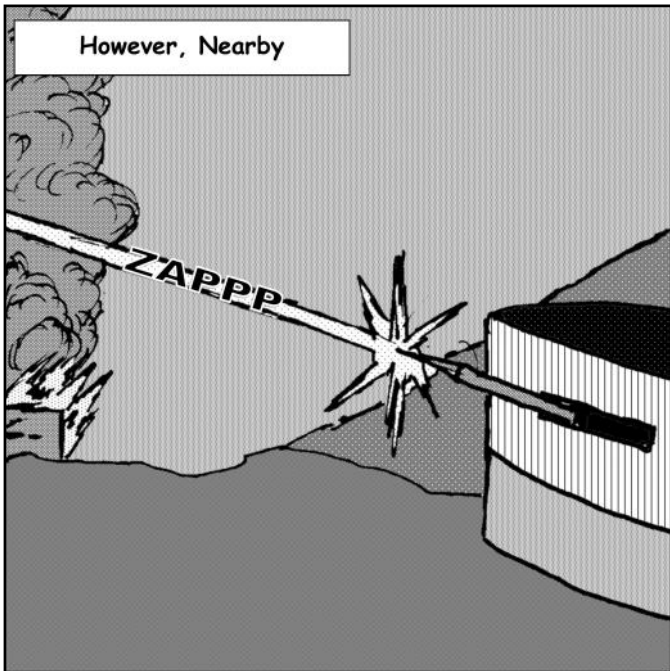

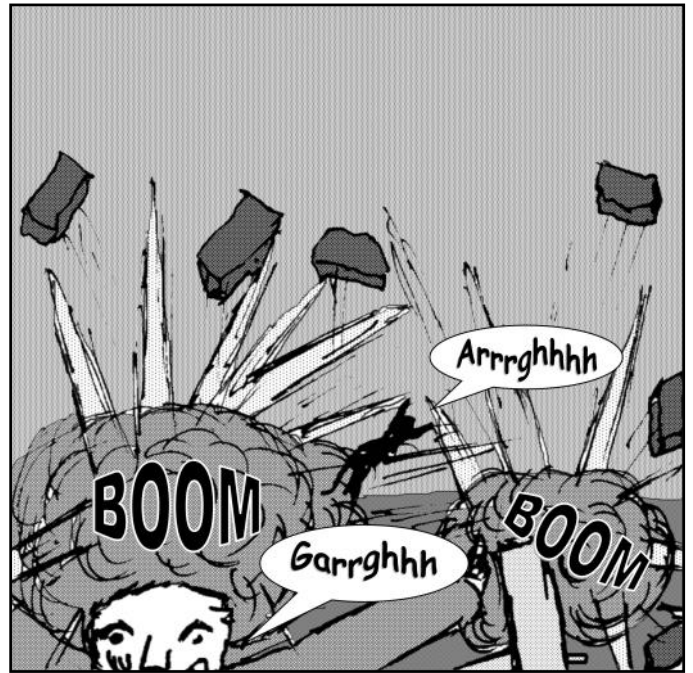

Just got a newsflash as I came in. It's all kicked off again in Yorkshire.

Those mutants have launched a massive assault on Huddersfield. The place is in flames.

A Minute Later

Bosworth, you're the least injured. Take the radio, try to make contact with someone. Take a med kit for that arm.

Boothy's unconscious and busted up. I've lost my right hand and my right leg is in bad shape as well.

I'll create a diversion to cover your escape. Now go and good luck.

Okay Shane, I'll try my best. Good luck to you too.

Seconds Later.

Die you Mutant sons of b*s!
AARRGHHH!!!

Gaaarrgghhh
