Lancastergate Park - Town District, Leyland City
Well T.J. you ready to go?

This helicopter has 3 times the armour of the one we went to London in. Like to see those mutants try to take this one out!

Well the last one was devastating. I think we'd better move, there's a audience forming, and I've got a couple mutants here with me!

Well we're off to Yorkshire! At least there's no vampires this time!
Yeah! Just loads of killer mutants!
