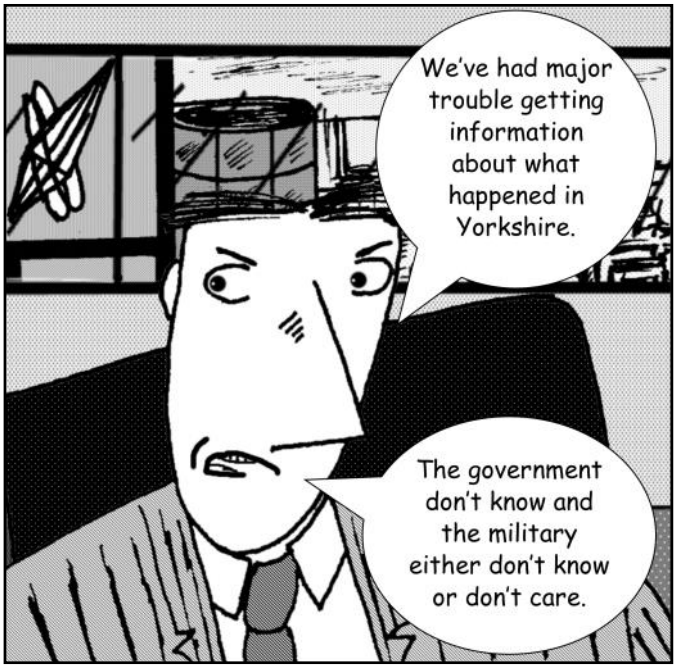
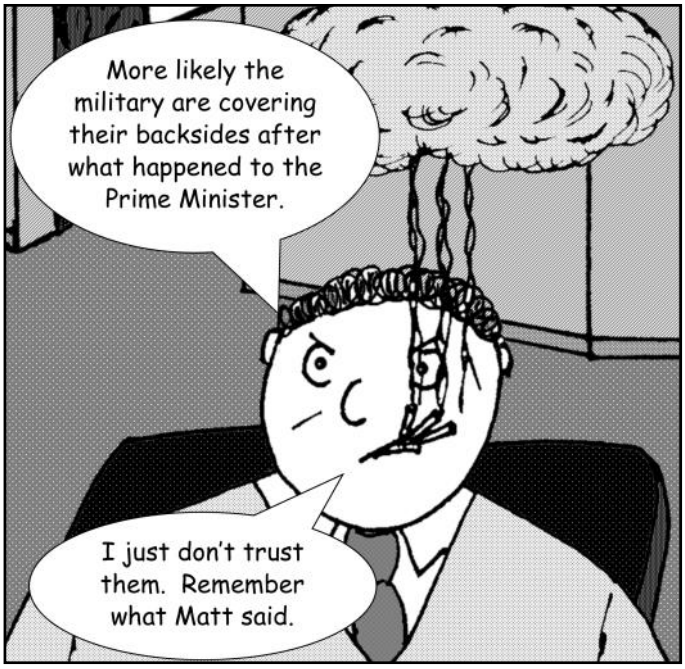
Part 6.

Three Weeks Later - T.J. Investigations.
49
Hi there guys. I'm back. You missed me right?
49

Of course Shane. Smithy isn't that good at shooting people!
Anyway, nice to have you back, and just in time.



We've had major trouble getting information about what happened in Yorkshire.
The government don't know and the military either don't know or don't care.



More likely the military are covering their backsides after what happened to the Prime Minister.
I just don't trust them. Remember what Matt said.

We'll just have to keep an eye on them, and see if anything turns up!
49

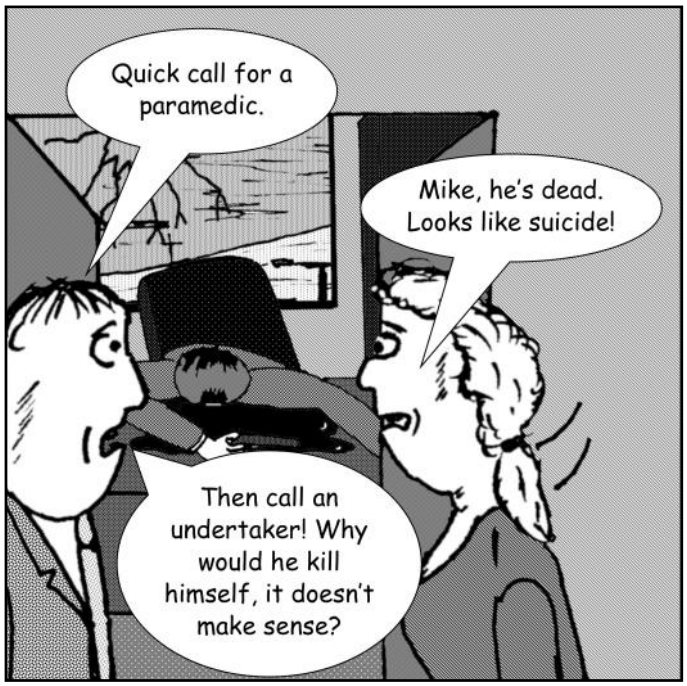
Oh absolutely! However, a little snooping doesn't hurt, eh Shane?

Meanwhile at the UK parliament in Lancaster.

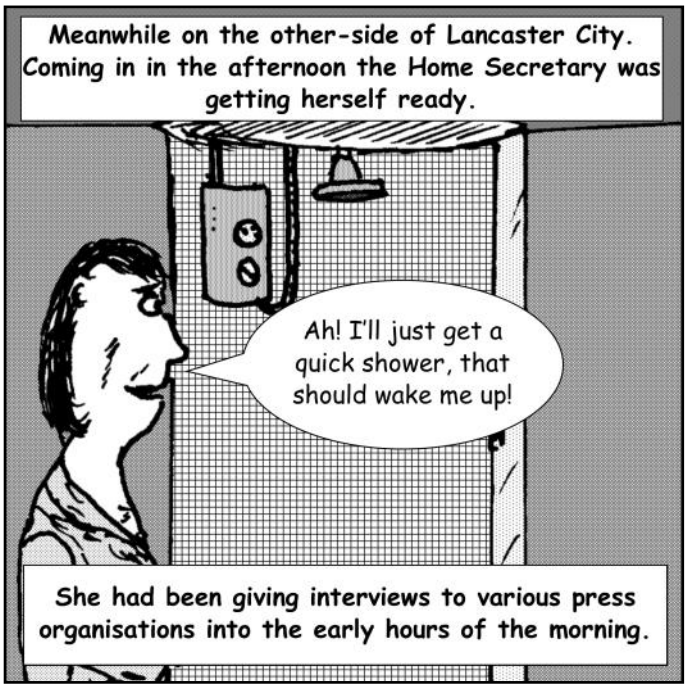
The deputy Prime-Minister was still upset at the death of his friend and colleague.
If only I could have stopped him going.

Michael has the general responded to our requests.
No sir, we've made repeated requests for him to come to the house.
Okay, then make it a demand and summon him to explain what went wrong! I'll be in my office all day.
Yes sir!

A Few Minutes Later
BANG
What the hell was that?



Quick call for a paramedic.
Mike, he's dead. Looks like suicide!
Then call an undertaker! Why would he kill himself, it doesn't make sense?



Meanwhile on the other-side of Lancaster City. Coming in in the afternoon the Home Secretary was getting herself ready.
Ah! I'll just get a quick shower, that should wake me up!
She had been giving interviews to various press organisations into the early hours of the morning.

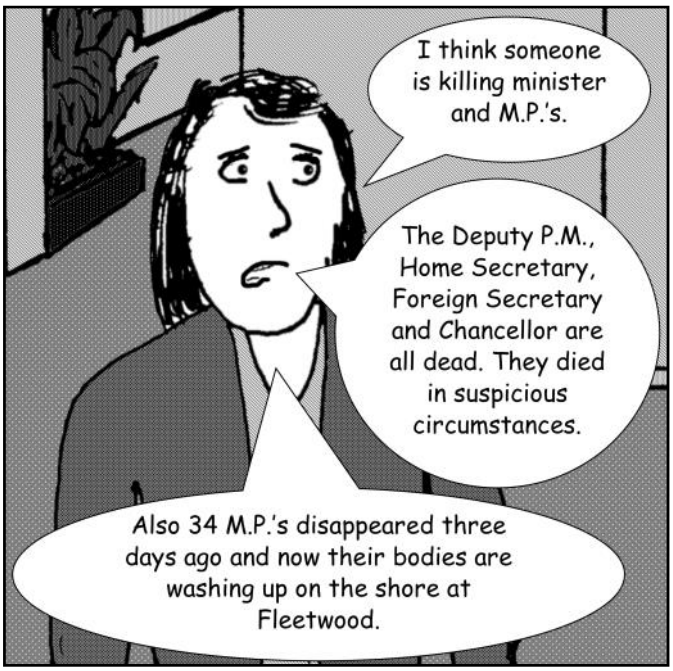
T.J. the minister for the environment is here to see you. She's a little early.

No problem Shaz, it's a quiet morning. Show her in.

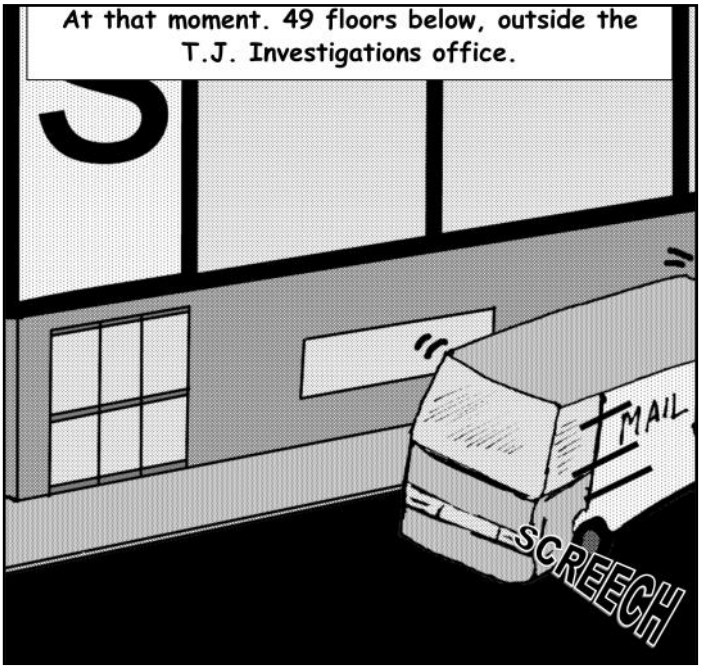
Good Moring T.J. Sorry I'm a bit early the traffic was very light coming in.
Good Morning Minister, don't worry about being early. Now what did you want to tell us?



I think someone is killing minister and M.P.'s.
The Deputy P.M., Home Secretary, Foreign Secretary and Chancellor are all dead. They died in suspicious circumstances.
Also 34 M.P.'s disappeared three days ago and now their bodies are washing up on the shore at Fleetwood.

T.J. you remember what Matt Cancer said, to keep an eye on thing. I think this counts!

You are right Smithy. It looks like someone is trying to undermine and overthrow the government.
Worse still that someone is either in or at least has control of the military.



At that moment. 49 floors below, outside the T.J. Investigations office.
